Group Projects:

Manuka Room: Exploring Diversity - Children in the Manuka Room are currently showing keen interest in their environment and using their senses to explore diversity through art activities. Children are noticing each others differences and by celebrating different events in the centre— Gita.

Kowhai Room: Literacy and Numeracy— In Kowhai Room, educators are still focusing on building children’s knowledge and communication on numeracy and literacy skills. Children are encourage in both areas by engaging and provoking experiences. Children are currently developing their colours and numbers through recognizing shapes, matching letters, singing and colour mixing— Tegan.

Pohutukawa Room: As part of our “Nurturing Nature” project, we spread our wings through quiet contemplation where we are teaching our tamariki how to focus/control with their emotions in a positive mindful way. Come and visit our class to discover what professions your child wants to be when they get older— Jawa.

Upcoming Events

Friday 28th September we will be celebrating “Loud Shirt Day”, many of our tamariki throughout N.Z are deaf or suffer from hearing loss. Loud shirt day is a day to recognize, show respect for and learn sign language in support of these children. Please dress your child in a super hero costume on this day and bring along a gold coin donation and drop it in our box at reception to show your respect.

Upcoming Events continued..

Tuesday 3rd October we will be throwing our end of year "Parent Evening". Educators will be providing nibbles, drinks and experiences for bonding with parents and whanau. Tegan and Jawa will also be sharing their knowledge on Behavior Management-Incredible Years for children with challenging behaviors which was gained through a course they both attended earlier this year.

Friday 26th October will be our "Centre Trip to Kelly Tarlton's". Permission forms for this will be sent out soon closer to the date.

Reminders:

- Please trim the nails of your children regularly.
- Sun hats required from October onwards. So please start bringing them with your child with their name on it.
- Baby photo's for Pohutukawa Room.
