

Dear my lovely teachers,...

It's a lloooonggg..... hop from where I used to be.

I started my preschool 4 months ago, where I was so insecure that I kept holding my backpack and following my teachers everywhere.

Now Bright Beginnings becomes my 2nd home and I'm always looking forward to go to school everyday (incl. weekends!).

My mom also feels safe & comfortable to be back to work, something that she wasn't sure about. Thank you very much... for everything!
